o history 图1200

THURSDAY - SHOW 1 WELCOME!

- 299 FOXTROT S. Martin Shelton Independent 11 Mins.

 Produced at the Film Projects Branch, Naval Weapon Center, China Lake, California.
- TURNABOUT Richard Haverinen Student, San Diego State University 4:13 Mins.
 " A long-lost folk tale about the primeval woman and her mate."
- NOTES ON THE POPULAR ARTS Saul Bass Independent 20 Mins.
 "...by turns, lyrical and funny, it utilizes a variety of film techniques—live action, animation and special effects."
- SEA IN THE CLOUDS A CHRONICLE OF LAKE TAHOE David Phillips Student, USC 22 Mins.
 "In a photographic tribute to Lake Tahoe's rugged majesty, this film documents the ecological history of man's use and abuse of an area rich in resource and beauty."
- THE MOUTH THAT ROARED Douglas Sandberg Student, Cal. College of Arts & Crafts 5 Mins.

 "A humorous film about how human feelings, intelligence and speech interact."
- THE PREPARATORY Terence Cahalan Student, USC 24 Mins.

 "An adolescent boy in a Catholic boarding school hardens to the realities around him through his experiences he encounters with his fellow students and his teachers."
- A TOUTE BETISE Edward Jones Student, San Francisco Art Institute 3 Mins.

 "Floating in the clouds and on the ocean is a ball of running down a forest trail and driving down Broadway containing three faces, two speaking, one mum and a human body-parts charade."
- DARK CLOUDS OVER THE LAKE LONE BIRD FLIES NORTH THROUGH THE RAIN Corwin Fergus Ind.-6 Mins. "A portrait of an inner feminine image, a woman & a relationship."
- A SPORTS SUITE Mike O'Connell & Rick Harper Independent 8 Mins.
 "Four sports vignettes, dynamically photographed, and cut to classical music, create a mini-fantasia."

THE HUMBOLDT FILM FESTIVAL IS A STUDENT OPERATED PROGRAM SPONSORED BY THE THEATRE ARTS DEPARTMENT

