JUDGES:

JUNE FORAY

Is Hollywood's most prolific specialist in recording voices and sound effects for television, films and albums. She presently teaches classes at USC, and serves on the Board of the Motion Picture Academy.

WILL HINDLE

Is an independent filmmaker who has been teaching at the University of South Florida since 1972. The Mid-Atlantic Region Media Center has called Hindle "the most consummate artist-technician working in film today."

BEN SHEDD

A USC professor and an Academy Award-winning documentary filmmaker. The film "The Flight of the Gossamer Condor," which he wrote, directed and edited, won the prestigious award in 1978.

GUEST ARTIST:

NINA FOCH

Is an actress and teacher whose film credits include an Oscar nomination. She has worked with directors such as Cecil B. De Mille and Stanley Kubrick. Ms. Foch will spend a couple days with us conducting film acting workshops. Her visit is being sponsored by the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences Visiting Artists Program.

A NEW TRADITION:

THE ROMANO ROBERTSINI BANANA SLUG AWARD FOR SURREALISM — A new cash award to be presented annually for meritorious achievement in surrealism. Sponsored by Humboldt County resident John Robertson.
